MEET THE COACHES

Declan Danaher
Former London Irish
Assistant Coach

Previously London Irish's longest serving player in the professional era with over 275 appearances, he represented Ireland at U19 level, Irish Exiles at U19 and U21 level, England at U21 level and England A. He has also played for the Barbarians. Following a successful playing career Declan joined the coaching team in 2016 as defence coach before making the transition to assistant coach at the club. Whilst the 2022/2023 season will be known for other reasons it also reflected the huge progress the club had made in recent years on the pitch, as they finished runners up in the Premiership Cup, 5th in the highly competitive Rugby Premiership and made it to the round of 16 in the Heineken Cup.

As Harlequins Women's Head Coach, Amy builds on her experiences as both an international player and coach. Having acquired 59 England Caps as both hooker and scrum half, and attended the 2010 World Cup, Amy has operated successfully as Head Coach of England U20's, Performance Coach to England Women and more recently the transition into the role of Harlequins Women Head coach

Head coach

Rich Pryor
Former ACE Head Coach
London Irish RFC

A qualified teacher with 20 years of experience, Richard has vast expertise across the game of rugby union through his roles with county age-grade teams, men and women's senior rugby and more recently as Head Coach and manager of the London Irish ACE programme. Within this time he has been a regular coach of the highly successful London Irish Academy, together with input into the senior premiership teams 1st XV scrum coaching.

A firm favourite with Coach Centered Coaches, Simeon brings a wealth of experience from his time working with Harlequins women and being part of the ACE programme at London Irish RFC. Recent years have seen Sim play a critical role in the development of a number of front 3 players who have now acquired premiership contracts at representation at England level.
